An advertising copywriter whose specialty is considered a mail order classic, and the "most stolen" book from public libraries because it is so rare and valuable. He lectured and taught extensively, and with his wife Barbara, assembled one of the most famous collections of contemporary art. Eugene Schwartz passed away in 1995.

The Lost Secrets of Breakthrough Advertising
Dear friend, Human behavior hasn't changed since 1966. Actually, I could plug in any year before 1966 (1066?) and say the same thing. And while many think this classic book is only about creative, copywriting and direct marketing, it is more importantly about human behavior...how we can predict it and how we need to be immersed in what it takes to understand why people do the things they do ...
