The middle class is also plainly fickle. Just like the Roman mob, the Indian middle class is light on the judgement. Political opinion, social judgement, nationalism and religion are formidable forces in today's times.

The Myth of the Indian Middle Class

Thus the most influential undercurrents are more than just Indian in nature. The most controversial and emotionally charged fibre in the fabric of Indian nationalism is religion. Religion forms a major, and in many cases, the central element of Indian life. Ethnic communities are diverse in terms of linguistics,...
